Until we purchased our Gerber system, we had worked very little on a computer and had done all layouts by hand. There was a little hesitation in acquiring the system because of our lack of computer knowledge. However, the hesitation was without warrant. The system is very people friendly and, with the help of Sandra Harrison, at Hyatt's, we were able to learn the every day operations within two days. Sandra came to our office and spent the majority of two days with us, installing, teaching and helping us set-up and learn the system. About half way through the second day, we were very comfortable with the system.

Sandra is always available should something new come up and extremely helpful. She answers any questions any time we need answers and always returns telephone calls within a very short period of time. She is truly an asset to the Hyatt organization.
